Preface.

THIS is the fourth and concluding Volume of the Registers of St. Bene't and St. Peter's, Paul's Wharf. It contains the Burials in the former parish from 1619 and in the latter from 1607, in each case to 1837. The earlier Registers of the Burials in both parishes are missing. Frequent entries occur in St. Bene't of burials from Doctors Commons and from the Heralds' College, and mention of the Heralds' pew is made several times. The present Incumbent of the Church, which is and has been for many years used as a Welsh Church for the Metropolis, was unable to inform me of the site of the Heralds' pew. I gather, however, that in the north-east corner of St. Nicholas Cole Abbey, the present Parish Church of the College, there was until recently a pew known as the Heralds' pew, and that it was removed by the late Rector. There is no sign of it there now, but possibly some inquiry on the part of the officers of the College might lead to the discovery of their old pew in the vaults or tower of St. Nicholas Cole Abbey.

Judging from the names, there must have been a strong contingent of inhabitants of Welsh origin in both parishes in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

The deaths from the plagues in 1625 and 1665 appear to have been unusually numerous.

A List of Briefs for damage by fire, rebuilding churches, and so forth, will be found at the end of the Volume.

Many of the courts and alleys mentioned in the Registers no longer exist; some were presumably pulled down immediately prior to 1871, when Queen Victoria Street, which runs through the parishes, was opened. A copy of a part of Rocque's Map of London (1746), including the parishes of St. Bene't and St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, and having red lines to shew the approximate position of Queen Victoria Street, will be found at the beginning of this Volume.

Since the first volume was issued the Rev. Charles Napier Kelly, Canon of St. Paul's and Rector of the united parishes, has died. The facilities which he gave for the printing of these Registers have been kindly continued by his successor, the Rev. Gerald Keith Stanley Marshall.

End of Burials in Book B.

BOOK C.

BURIALS.

This has the covers loose, and within the covers two loose blocks of Register. The first block has the title given below; the other has each page headed "Burialls in Woollen," except the first leaf, on which is the following: "The register of the certificates that are given by the minister and church wardens for tuching for the eivell." This is followed by these four entries:—

1683-4	Mar. 23	Mary daugter of Robert Harburt
1684	Oct. 31	Mary daugter of Marke ffrost
1685	May 13	John Hockley and William Ward
	Nov. 20	Doarathie Sanders

This block evidently belonged originally to the end of the book, as turning it the reverse way the entries will be found continued with the same head-line, whereas the part with the full title ends abruptly after eleven pages, and the remaining pages are ordinary burial entries continued in the main part of the book. There are a considerable number of blank leaves between the two parts. These woollen entries supply some years for which there appears to be no other register. The registration of burials in woollen is continued in a tall, narrow, thin book from 1709 to July 1733. In this same narrow book are about a dozen marriages and a few pages of births. The woollen entries have been collated with the regular burial entries, and additions and variations noted.
